Taste of Chocolate and the MIT Endicott House presents The Chocolate 'Lovers' Weekend 2/11 - 2/12/12

Saturday 9:00am.

Arrival/ Introduction - Start off of this delicious weekend learning about the MIT Endicott House and its history as well as the history of the star of the weekend CHOCOLATE!

Saturday 9:30am.

The Art of Chocolate Tasting - teaches you how to truly experience the nuances of chocolate and enjoy many different varieties and flavors. You will also be offered the opportunity to sample chocolate from local artisans across New England – from stone ground, organic chocolate to delicate truffles.

Saturday 10:30am.

Chocolate Challenge - We get everybody started with the manic fun of Full Contact Chocolate Bingo. Once you're properly energized, we tantalize your taste buds with our unique "Chocolate Taste Test" competition, serving up familiar childhood favorites – can you guess what they are? The next hilarious challenge, Towering Chocolate, sharpens your communication, problem solving and innovation skills as a team to work to build the tallest possible freestanding chocolate tower!

Saturday 1:00pm.

Buffet Lunch

Saturday 3:00pm.

Making Whoopie! - Pie that is... Our chef will teach you how to make your own award winning Whoopie Pies! Learn how to create your own delicious fillings and pair up different flavor combinations and toppings for these versatile treats!

Saturday 5:00pm.

Break to prepare for the evenings chocolate festivities

Saturday 7:00pm.

Wine and Chocolate cocktail hour - You will discuss how chocolate is made, from bean-to-bar, and fine wine from vine-to-glass, and, of course, there'll be plenty of tasting. We explore the rich history of wine AND chocolate. The similarities are evident; both have complex flavors and notes, similar components and nuances and require specific care to bring it from the earth to the table!

Saturday 8:00pm.

Dining in the Dark - A journey for all the senses...except one. Let us take you on a journey of the senses in one of the most unique dinners you will ever experience. Once blindfolded, let your senses take over and you'll enjoy the smells, the sounds, the tastes and the textures in a way you never thought possible.

Sunday 10:00am.

Good Morning Chocoholics- Start the day off right with our decadent brunch

Sunday 12:00pm.

Chocolate Truffle Workshop - A great hands-on introduction to the world of chocolate making, Taste of Chocolate's Chocolate Workshops will show participants how master Chocolatier's make their handmade chocolates, and allow them to create a batch of truffles to enjoy or share.
